VINCE
I don't know, cuz like you know how bad my anxiety is, what if I freak out

JOURNEY
Then remember what I say: great things happen to those who don't stop believing, trying, learning, and being grateful.

VINCE
Woah, that's some deep shit

JOURNEY
Hey! You asked

VINCE

Yeah, I know. I appreciate the advice, Journey, don't tell Jeremiah but your my best friend

JOURNEY (TEASING)

I thought both me and Jeremiah were your best friends

VINCE

JOURNEY (LAUGHING)

I know I know, I'm playin. I know what you mean

RACING TRACK

The driver behind Vince starts to get jealous and decides to start attacking Vince

RACER # 1
I won't lose to you this time, street trash rookie

Two giant side blasters from the his car, appeared and started shooting at Vince's car

VINCE
That son of a bitch!

Vince dodges most of the attacks but he has to fight back in order to win

VINCE
Aight, let's get nuts!

Vince activates his side blasters and starts shooting at Racer # 1

RACER # 1
Yo ain't gonna beat me, junior! Time to die!

Racer #1 then uses his rocket boosters to speed up to Vince, who uses this as an advantage to deploy his missiles.

RACER # 1
Imma shoot you all the way back to the streets where you belong

Racer # 1 continues to shoot at Vince violently, however he underestimates Vince who launches his missile rockets at him.
(giant boom)

RACER # 1
Aaaaaaahhhhhhh

Vince sends Racer # 1 flying way off the track, where he lands his legs on a pole, where he starts screaming in pain

VINCE

Finally, glad I ain't gotta deal wit that bitch no more

Vince continues driving, now in third place, quickly looks behind to see the rest of the racers, he sees the other racers preoccupied as they are fighting with each other trying to get ahead

VINCE

While they deal wit each other, I'll deal wit
Will and Meech

Vince speeds up and tries to avoid battling Will but it looks like Will will do whatever it takes to win

WILL

Sorry, Vince

Will starts shooting at Vince and tries to only slow him down

VINCE

Will!!! What the hell???

WILL

Again, sorry Vince

VINCE

I thought we was friends!!??

WILL

We are, this ain't personal but I gotta win

Will steps on the gas pedal and turns his car around and starts shooting at Vince so much that he even launches four of his rockets at him which goes directly at him

VINCE

Muthafu.....

There's a double explosion due to the four rockets launched which slows down the drivers behind them but Vince isn't in Will's sight which causes him to worry

(will sighs)

WILL (TALKING TO HIMSELF QUIETLY)

Sorry, Vince, I do hope you make it

Will then hears tires screeching coming from the fire, he looks behind him

WILL
What the fuck???

Vince's car comes blazing through the fire, his boosters accelerating intensely

VINCE (JOKINGLY)
Look who's back, asshole

WILL (LAUGHING)
You a tuff muthafucker, you know that?

VINCE
Yeah, I know

WILL
Sorry bout back there, really I am

VINCE
It's okay, for real

WILL
Cool, you know, when this is done we should go get some food

VINCE
Bet, but first, I should tell you something

WILL What?

VINCE
How's your wheels?

WILL Huh?

Will looks down and sees that his wheels caught on fire

WILL
What the hell!!!

VINCE (LAUGHING)
Your mechanic forgot to fire proof your wheels again

WILL
Son of a bitch!!!

VINCE

I'll see you at the finish line! But right now, I gotta go beat Justice!

WILL
K, good luck, rookie!

Vince is almost to the finish line but first he's gotta get past Justice, worst of all, the other racers are behind him and are all attempting to gang up on him but Vince has a plan

RACER # 2
You gotta go, rooki!

RACER # 3
Yeah, you finna loose

RACER # 4
You and yo street trash team

VINCE
Yall talkin all that shit and so far I kicked all yall asses in this race

Vince then pushes on a button, Jeremiah said to use when he felt like it, so Vince pushed it.

(transforming noise)

VINCE
What the...

Vince's car transforms into a mech-like robot and starts going on a rampage, starts flipping over cars, causing explosions, and showing off in front of everyone. He then punches through a car and then transform back into one

VINCE
Now that that's done, time to beat Justice and win

Vince races towards Justice who so far is still in the lead

VINCE
Yo Justice!

JUSTICE

Vince!? You made it to second place?

VINCE

Why so surprised?

JUSTICE (LAUGHING)

You know what? You right, congrats

VINCE

Thanks, now watch as I pass you and win!

JUSTICE

Word? Aight, we'll see!

The two step on their pedals hard and accelerate their vehicles as fast as they can

JUSTICE

How you feelin, Vince?

VINCE

Never better!

The two are almost to the finish line with both of them so far in the lead but there can only be one

VINCE (THINKING TO HIMSELF)

Cmon dammitt

There's lot of suspense with everyone at the track watching what's happening

VINCE

There it is!

The two cars drive through the finish line with both cars getting into a crash over how fast they were going. Vince's car flips over and lands while Justice's car runs into a post.

ANNOUNCER

Well look at that, a tie! But is it really?
Let's check after medics tend to our winners!

Many medical officers arrive at the scene and assist Vince and Justice. Justice's girlfriend runs over and kisses him so many times as she was worried for his life while Journey and Jeremiah arrive and go see if Vince is okay

JOURNEY

Vince!! You okay? You did great!

JEREMIAH
